

A CHANCE IN HEAVEN

Eagles and doves mounting on their wings
As the wind itself whistles and sings
The clear blue sky shines its light ahead
Just think of me as you go to bed

CHORUS

To give a red rose is to show someone your love
The waves of the sea to the heaven above
The crisp white mountains to the sea down below
To start life together, a chance for us to grow

Have no fear just climb to the top
I'm waiting for you, just don't ever stop
I promise to catch you if you should ever fall
This I will give you, I will give you my all
