

ALLOCATION

A voice is defined as any single melodic line (a line which produces a melody). Allocation or the allocation of voice refers to the function and number of voices in any given example of music.