

ARMS OF LOVE

To be loved by so many, arms all around
Just listen to the Spirit, just hear the sound
Listen to His voice, He'll never lead you astray
Just follow the light and He'll guide your way

CHORUS

It's never too late to admit your mistakes
This is one of the steps that you must take
We are not perfect nor will ever be
Just accept this fact and you will see

The door will be opened, you just have to seek
Ask for His guidance, nobody is ever weak
Don't ever hurry, the walk is never a race
Since on day in heaven, we'll all see His face
