

BURNING LOVE

Laugh your heart out and dance in the rain
Cherish the moment let love come again
To touch you and feel you inside your heart
Together in Heaven, where our lives will start

CHORUS

Got nowhere to run and no place to hide
I can't trust my heart, I don't know why
All I know is when you smile at me
I get this feeling, this burning inside

Not all good things have to come to an end
Within your arms, I can feel our love again
Nothing more would need to come true
In this world, but to disappear with you

CHORUS

All I know is when you smile at me
I get this feeling this burning inside
