

MENDING A HEART

The road of love is not always easy
Fragments and pieces are part of the journey
Pick up the pieces wherever they land
If you feel yourself fall, just give me your hand

CHORUS

Take you love and hit the road
Just be patient and take things slow
Don't leave your heart around the bend
For in time the heart itself will mend

Love itself is not easy to find
Love is pure in heart and mind
One has to be patient and wait
For love itself to take its place
