

PRAYER OF THE HEART

I once was lost but I found my way
Through the scorching dry heat, it was a difficult day
As I looked at my life, I felt broken inside
All I wanted to do, was to break down and cry

CHORUS

Of all my experiences, one journey to the next
The road of the broken-hearted is difficult to accept (Looking for the one, don't care about the rest)
(Keep pushing through)

Picking up the pieces
This is the prayer of the heart

Here I am, standing here, at the top of a rock
I've come so far, footprints made, all the steps that I've walked Walking with faith, my head up, I keep moving on Looking at the footprints, I know I have to be strong

BRIDGE

I've been down that road, I know how you feel
You question your life, and wonder if it's (truly) real
My best advice are these words I say (now) to you
Just believe and have faith, I know you can do it too

CHORUS

Spirit
Love & Loss
Journey
God's Will
Near it, fear it
BROKENHEARTED
Travelling down the road
