

UNWIND MY HEART

Against the wind we start to fly
Through the arches and into the night
Our life begins as we move ahead
Together at the altar, as we kiss and wed

CHORUS

Hold me close and look in my eyes
The gold in your hair is not a surprise
In your arms safety I find
Travel with me the road which unwinds

The eyes are the windows to the soul
They burn my heart like the hot lump of coal
Can't see it but feel it as we move ahead
Until the day we lay down our heads
