

WINGS OF THE HEART

Still as the water and the rays of the sun
Just hold my hand tight, our journey has just begun
Like a flower which opens up inside
As we sit behind a rock, where we can hide

CHORUS

Shower me with things you don't have to explain
Just give me your heart; I can ease your pain
Angels from the Heavens surrounded by wings
Hearts wrapped in love, hear the bells ring

Stand strong when I need you to be there
Surround me with wings to show me you care
I promise you we will always be together
On the journey of love, which lasts forever
